September 11 Recovery Program

Directory of 9/11 Services Funded by the American Red Cross

This directory lists non-profit organizations that have received funding support from the American Red Cross Liberty Disaster Relief Fund to provide services that address needs of people affected by the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks.

Please share this information with people who were affected by 9/11 and people who are helping those affected. This directory was created to help ensure that people who need help know where they can receive services.

The information contained in this listing is current as of August 2005. Before you refer someone, please call the agency you have selected and confirm that services are still available.

If you have questions about Red Cross services for people affected by 9/11, please call 1-877-746-4987.
