Dear Partner in Preparedness,

Thank you for collaborating with the American Red Cross and the California Emergency Management Agency to host a preparedness event in your community.

This toolkit is designed to centralize resources and to provide some of our collective best practices to empower you.

Use the following pages as a resource and launching point for your event. Included is a step-by-step guide on how to plan an event as well as general information, such as, safety guides, informational brochures, games, and press materials to help you better engage a wide range of audiences.

By organizing a preparedness event, you are helping to save lives and, in turn, are helping to strengthen your community. Both the California Emergency Management Agency and the American Red Cross work each day to make California and its residents ready to aid their families and their neighbors in the event of a disaster.

To request additional materials or for further information about disaster preparedness, please visit our websites. On behalf of the California Emergency Management Agency and the American Red Cross, we thank you again for making disaster preparedness a priority. We sincerely value your partnership.

Warm regards,

California Emergency Management Agency

Be Heard: Promoting the Event

- Consider inviting preparedness partners like:
  - CalEMA
  - Your local American Red Cross chapter
  - FEMA
  - Your local government office of emergency services
  - Your local fire department
  - And others!
- Use social media tools like local blogs, Twitter, and Facebook to get the word out.
- Contact local newspaper and community events listings.

Be Seen and Be Heard: How to Host a Successful Preparedness Event

Best Practices

- Allow plenty of time for set up
- Create a “booth kit” including:
  - o Pens
  - o Tape
  - o Scissors
  - o Safety pins
  - o Paperweights, in case of wind
  - o Water and snacks
  - o Extra name tags
  - o Extra materials
- Draw people in:
  - o Bring appropriate activities for your audience like a game wheel or trivia game
  - o Offer giveaways with your agency name or fun prizes
  - o Raffle preparedness kits
  - o Create a “passport” that turns into a raffle ticket. Have people earn stamps by visiting various booths for bite-size learning moments. After earning 3+ stamps, they are eligible to enter the raffle.
- Have plenty of your business cards on hand to give out
- Wear comfortable shoes
- Have fun!

Bringing Disaster into Focus

National Preparedness Month - September

National Preparedness Month
www.ready.gov

September is National Preparedness Month. This awareness month is sponsored by the Ready Campaign in partnership with Citizen Corps. National Preparedness Month is held each September and is designed to encourage Americans to take simple steps to prepare for emergencies in their homes, businesses, and communities. For more information on what it means to become a coalition member, how to become a member, how to register your organization, and more click on the National Preparedness Month link found at <http://www.ready.gov>.

Great Shakeout - October

The Great California ShakeOut
www.shakeout.org

The Great California ShakeOut is a day of special events featuring the largest earthquake drill ever, organized to inspire Californians to get ready for big earthquakes, and to prevent disasters from becoming catastrophes. What we do now, before a big earthquake, will determine what our lives will be like afterwards. The drill will occur in houses, businesses, and public spaces alike throughout California on the morning of the third Thursday of October each year.

Free registration at <http://www.shakeout.org/register> will pledge an individual's or group's participation in this important preparedness event. Participants will receive information on how to prepare for the inevitable major earthquake in the region and what actions to take during and after the shaking.

Please visit the following websites to download additional resources.

www.redcross.org

As a community-based, humanitarian organization, the American Red Cross provides relief to those affected by disasters and empowers individuals in our community to prevent, prepare for and respond to emergencies. By helping people learn how to take care of their families and neighbors, the American Red Cross strengthens the community and readies it for all types of disasters including home fires, earthquakes, wildfires and health emergencies. The American Red Cross provides 24-hour assistance to people affected by disasters, and as one of the region's largest educational providers, trains residents in lifesaving skills through multi-language, online, community and workplace courses.

California Emergency Management Agency
www.calema.ca.gov/

CalEMA is responsible for the coordination of overall state agency response to major disasters in support of local government. The Agency is responsible for assuring the state's readiness to respond to and recover from all hazards – natural, manmade, war-caused emergencies and disasters – and for assisting local governments in their emergency preparedness, response, recovery, and hazard mitigation efforts.

Navigating Resources

Please visit the following websites to download additional resources.

Prepare
www.Prepare.org

Prepare.org is hosted by the American Red Cross Bay Area Chapter and Bay Area Cross Sector Partners in Preparedness, an organization dedicated to developing an effective network to build collaboration and interaction among and within sectors to prepare and respond to pandemic and other large scale emergencies within the Greater San Francisco Bay Area.

Totally Unprepared
www.totallyunprepared.com

Totally Unprepared is what happens when you put forward-thinking state agencies, earthquake geeks, social media nerds, a web analytic genius, a professional filmmaker, a hot firefighter or two, and a bunch of unsuspecting Californians in a blender and hit frappe. The plan was to educate Californians about earthquake preparedness, but we did not want to bore you or ourselves to death with tedious lists and bone-dry commentary so we made earthquake materials that would be entertaining to us. We hope you have as much fun visiting these pages and watching our videos as we have had creating them.

Games and Activities

How Ready Are You Already?

Give yourself 10 points for each item that is true for you and determine your personal readiness rating.

I Have Created a Home Disaster Plan

- My family and I have identified two places to meet after a disaster.
- My family and I have identified an out-of-area phone contact.
- My family and I have identified escape routes out of our home.

I Have Developed a Home Disaster Supplies Kit

- I have a 3-day supply of food, water (1 gallon per person, per day), and special items* for all members of my household.

*(*Special items may include emergency supplies for your pets, extra eyeglasses, baby food, diapers, medication, food to meet special dietary needs, important family documents, denture needs, etc.)*

- I have a flashlight, battery-powered radio, and extra batteries.
- I have a well-stocked first aid kit.

I Have Been Informed about what to do in a Disaster

- I have learned what disasters may occur in my area and how they might affect me and my loved ones.
- I have learned the various methods used to stay informed during a disaster. (*Such as tv, radio, internet, local emergency warning system, etc.)
- I have learned how to drop, cover and hold on in case of an earthquake, to shelter-in-place if needed, and evacuate safely or signal for help if I am unable to exit in case of fire.
- I am currently certified in first aid and CPR.

Readiness Rating

- 90-100 points = excellent
- 80 points = very good
- 70 points = a solid foundation
- < 70 points = still more to do!

Dare to Prepare - Quiz Board

Create your own Dare to Prepare game and quiz your community on their disaster preparedness knowledge. Here are instructions on how to create and play the game.

DARE TO PREPARE
First Aid	Disaster	Fire	Earthquake
100	100	100	100
200	200	200	200
300	300	300	300
400	400	400	400

Materials:

- Blank Display Board
- Colored Construction Paper (4 different colors)
- Scissors
- Double-Sided Velcro Tape
- Computer & Printer
- Laminating sheets

Navigating Resources

1. Type up and print “DARE TO PREPARE”
2. Using the Question and Answer Guide, type up point values and question cards. Remember to format so that the questions align with their corresponding point value on the back side of the card. See example below:

FRONT

3. Print the point values and question. Use one color of paper per category. For example, all Disaster questions are printed on green paper, while all Fire questions are printed on red paper
4. Laminate all pieces, ensuring that the point value is displayed on the front of the card and the question is displayed on the back of the card.
5. Attach double-sided Velcro to the cards and board. See example for placement. Attach the soft Velcro to the board and the rough Velcro to the front and back side of the card. This allows you to display both sides of the card on the board.
6. Congratulations! You are ready to play.

Set –Up:

1. Arrange the board with all point values displayed under the categories.
2. Determine how to score the game.
  - a. Giving away raffle tickets 100 points = 1 ticket, 200 point = 2 tickets, and so on. This works well if people do not have enough time to play the game all the way through.
  - b. Play the entire game and give a bigger prize to the winner.
3. Gather a group of 2-6 people.
4. Make sure you have the Question/Answer Guide.

How to Play:

1. Take turns answering questions based on point value. The higher the point value, the more difficult the question.
2. The person with the most points wins!

Question/Answer Guide

Fire

- 100Q: Name a place where you can meet your family in case of a house fire
  - 100A: Make sure that you can escape safely- You and your family can meet at a park nearby your home or go to your designated meeting place right outside your home.
- 200Q: What should you do if your clothes catch on fire?
  - 200A: STOP DROP AND ROLL!
- 300Q: What should you do if you are in your bedroom and there is thick smoke or flames on the other side of the door:
  - 300Q: Make sure you check the door handles with the back of your hand before opening door, if the door is hot and you cannot exit, look for an alternate route. If smoke, heat or flames block your exit routes preventing you from getting outside safely, hang a sheet or towel outside your window to let the fire department know where you are.
- 400Q: How do you test a smoke detector? How often do you need to test it to make sure the batteries still work?
  - 400A: Test smoke alarms by pushing the test button on each alarm. If it does not work, replace the battery and test again. If it still does not work, replace the alarm. You should test your smoke alarms once a month.

Earthquake

- 100Q: What three steps do you take when there is an earthquake?
  - 100A: DROP, COVER and HOLD ON!
- 200Q: What should you and your parents do to ensure your house is safe for an earthquake?
  - 200A: Determine your family disaster plan. Make a Plan, Get a Kit, Be Informed. Identify potential hazards (hanging objects, objects on open shelves, furniture, water and gas pipes, water heater, in the kitchen, home electronics) in your home and begin to fix them.
- 300Q: Are doorways a good place to be during an earthquake?
  - NO! Each doorway is structurally different. Doors may be swinging so they are not a safe place to be during an earthquake. At max only two people can be in a doorway. May need to evacuate.
- 400Q: What is an aftershock?
  - 400A: An aftershock is a smaller earthquake that occurs after a previous large earthquake in the same area (the main shock).

Disaster

- 100Q: What should you do in case of an emergency?
  - 100A: Call 911 if you see anything that needs an immediate police, fire or emergency response.
- 200Q: Name three types of disasters that can occur in the Bay Area
  - 200A: Fire, earthquake, flood, pandemic flu, tsunami, etc.
- 300Q: True or False: Candles should be part of disaster kit?
  - 300A: False-use a flashlight
- 400Q: How many gallons of water do you need for each person in your household?
  - 400A: 1 gallon of water per person per day for drinking for approximately 3-5 days.

First Aid

- 100Q: Name three items that should be included in a First Aid Kit
  - 100A: Water, food, flashlight, first aid kit, medications, battery operated or Crank radio, tools, clothing, sanitary supplies, cash in small denominations, contact information, map, personal items, additional items, etc.
- 200Q: What is the #1 way you can prevent spreading germs or illness?
  - 200A: Consistent hand washing!
- 300Q: You come upon a scene where someone seems to be hurt. What should you do first?
  - 300A: Make sure the scene is safe!
- 400Q: What care should you give first to a victim who has burned his or her hand?
  - 400A: Stop the burning. Safely put out the flames or remove the victim from the source of the burn. Cool the burn. Use large amounts of cool water to cool the burn.

Prepare Your Community

Map Your Block

The Map Your Block or Map Your Neighborhood project is an all hazards response tool educating members of the community to become more prepared during the pre-planning and response phase of a large scale emergency. The project provides the community with the tools and resources they need to increase community capacity and self-sufficiency during a disaster. The program is designed for “already organized” community or neighborhood groups (i.e. Homeowners Associations, Neighborhood Watch groups, faith-based organizations, etc.) to help them assess and map their resources. It also walks community members through a process to develop a community response plan. A neighborhood can be defined as a group of people with diverse characteristics who are linked by special ties, share common perspectives, and/or engage in joint activities within a geographical location or setting.
