Presenting the 2024 American Red Cross Youth IHL Essay & Art Competition

The American Red Cross is proud to announce its 2024 Youth And Young Adult International Humanitarian Law (IHL) Essay and Art Competition. Each year, entrants are challenged with creating thoughtful entries about IHL, the body of international law that governs armed conflict. This year, the competition will focus on Nuclear Weapons and Armed Conflict, including the dangers these weapons pose to humanity.

The competition is open to students in 8th through 12th grade, as well as undergraduate, graduate, and law school students. Winners in each age category receive $100 and special recognition from the American Red Cross.

Competition Opens: November 13, 2023

Deadline for Entries: January 26, 2024
