Student Art & Essay Competition: Exploring Space Law and Armed Conflict

The American Red Cross is proud to announce the 5th Annual International Humanitarian Law (IHL) Art and Essay Competition. This annual event challenges participants to thoughtfully apply IHL, the body of international law governing armed conflict, to a specific theme.

This year, participants are invited to explore the theme of Space Law and the implications of Armed Conflict in outer space.

The competition is open to students in 8th through 12th grade, as well as undergraduate, graduate, and law school. Winners in each category receive $100 gift card and have their work published in the annual IHL Magazine.

Competition Opens: November 1, 2024
Deadline for Entries: January 31, 2025
