HEROES

Today, we celebrate the heroes among us; the men and women in our community who have shown courage, dedication, and extraordinary character through acts of heroism and kindness. These heroes have saved a life, prevented a tragedy, or given of themselves, all for the greater good. Thank you for joining us in saluting these men and women who have shown us that HEROES do exist.

Heroes Breakfast

The tradition of recognizing community heroes at a breakfast began in 1994 in the American Red Cross Mount Rainer Chapter. The celebration has been adopted nationwide with most American Red Cross Chapters now hosting their own heroes events. The Augusta Area Chapter is proud to recognize ordinary people with extraordinary courage for the ninth annual American Red Cross of Augusta Heroes Breakfast.

To all of our attendees, contributors, and volunteers we say thank you. This celebration would not have been a success without your continued support. Proceeds from the Heroes Breakfast will benefit the American Red Cross of Augusta with much needed funding for the delivery of services provided to our communities.

Your local Chapter of the American Red Cross provides many services to the community on a daily basis including; single family disaster response, emergency disaster response, community disaster education, first aid and CPR classes, health and safety training, and emergency military communication.

For more information on the American Red Cross or to donate online, please visit www.redcross.org.

Our Mission

The American Red Cross prevents and alleviates human suffering in the face of emergencies by mobilizing the power of volunteers and the generosity of donors.

Making an Impact, Every Day

The American Red Cross assists more than 30,000 people daily.

Nearly 170 times a day—or every 8 minutes—Red Cross workers help a family affected by a home fire or other disaster.

The Red Cross must collect more than 13,000 blood donations every day to meet the constant need for lifesaving blood.

Every day, nearly 1,300 services are provided to members of the military, veterans and their families, helping them prepare for, cope with and respond to the unique challenges of military life.

On average, more than 621,000 children a day receive a measles or rubella vaccination from the Red Cross and our partners.

More than 13,000 people each day receive lifesaving Red Cross health and safety training and information, making our communities safer.

The Red Cross is proud that an average of 90 cents of every dollar we spend is invested in delivering care and comfort to those in need.

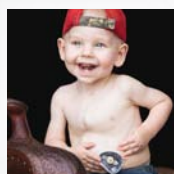

Our lifesaving work is powered by a workforce of more than 90% volunteers and generous public donations. The breadth of our work is vast, but the human impact is even greater. These are just a few examples of how our mission makes a lifesaving difference to those in need.

Providing Disaster Relief and Comfort

“I was surprised when I found out there was medical staff at the shelter that could help me.”

Elva Valdespino, who received medical assistance, comfort and more at a Red Cross shelter after taking refuge from wildfires in her community.

Delivering Lifesaving Blood

“I can’t tell you how thankful we are for the lifesaving donations that saved our son.”

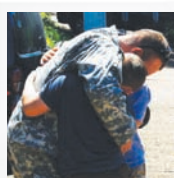

My linda Cornford, whose son Heath was born with an abnormal narrowing of his heart’s blood vessels that required many complex surgeries, a significant amount of blood products and a heart transplant—all within the first 217 days of his life.

Giving Hope Worldwide

“I’ve lived here 20 years, and all I can say is the Red Cross is the most organized, efficient agency I know. You’re always here, always helping, always trying. We’re just thankful for you being here.”

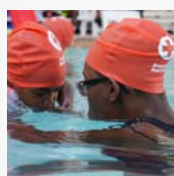

Marilyn, a resident of the Bahamas, giving thanks for Red Cross support after Hurricane Dorian devastated her community.

Serving Those Who Serve our Nation

“Knowing that in an emergency I could reach him through the Red Cross—regardless of where he was—gave me immense comfort. More importantly, he had the confidence that the Red Cross would find him, allowing him to focus on his mission and come home to us safely.”

Katie Hinman, whose husband, with the help of the Red Cross, was able to take emergency leave from Afghanistan to be with his dying mother.

Training Caregivers and Lifesavers

“At the beginning, she didn’t want to put her face in the water, but after several lessons, she started doing it. Our highlight was that she finally started kicking; we knew she was actually learning!”

Chantel Corley, mother of 1-year-old Chanel, who participated in a Red Cross Parent and Child Aquatics class.

GOOD SAMARITAN HERO

Thomson High School Football Coaching Staff

The 2020 Red Cross Good Samaritan Hero Award is presented to the Thomson High School Football Coaching Staff for their quick action in using their CPR and AED training to save the life of a player.

The player suffered from a condition where an artery formed between his aorta and his heart. When his heartbeat accelerated from exertion, the artery was pinched, and blood flow was interrupted. An arrhythmia occurred, and he collapsed at football practice and suffered from cardiac arrest. The player was revived using CPR and an AED (Automated External Defibrillator) that shocked his heart back into normal rhythm.

GOOD SAMARITAN YOUTH HERO

Christopher Shay

The 2020 Red Cross Good Samaritan Youth Hero Award is presented to Chris Shay for his quick action and presence of mind that saved the life of his sister.

When then twelve-year-old Chris Shay arrived home from school on December 18th to find the house ablaze, he knew his sister was inside. He ran into the house and found Kelly not breathing and the house being engulfed in smoke and flames. He quickly decided he could not get Kelly out safely as he had a broken arm. Running out of the house, Chris grabbed the family dog and called 911, setting in motion the Columbia County Emergency teams to respond and rescue his sister Kelly from the fire.

Here's one way we help:

At 2:00 a.m., the Jordan family is standing on the curb without shoes, watching their rental home burn.

As soon as the fire department is notified, they reach out to the Red Cross, letting us know the family needs us.

Luz, our volunteer specialist, immediately contacts the Jordans via video to minimize the risk of COVID-19 exposure and explains she's ready to help.

After securing the family a free hotel room, Luz leaves a financial assistance card at the front desk to cover immediate expenses like clothes and toiletries.

Over the next few weeks, Luz advises on renters' insurance and prorated rent, plus she helps the Jordans secure replacement Social Security cards.

Once they've recovered, the Jordans decide to pay it forward by installing smoke alarms as Red Cross volunteers when it's safe to do so.

MEDICAL HERO

The 2020 Red Cross Medical Hero Award is presented to Dr. Tarak Patel, an Infectious Disease Specialist serving several hospitals in Augusta, for his work on the coronavirus and his extensive educational outreach to the community during this uncertain time.

Dr. Tarak Patel was a constant source of valuable and credible information to the local news media, school systems, and community organizations who were all searching for accurate information on the coronavirus. While still maintaining his busy practice, Dr. Patel answered the call of many groups seeking his counsel in order to make informed decision affecting many in the community.

OUTDOOR RESCUE HERO

Lt. Brandon Reeves

The 2020 Red Cross Outdoor Rescue Hero Award is presented to Lt. Brandon Reeves for going above and beyond to search for, and ultimately save, an elderly man who had wandered from his home.

On Feb. 28, Burke County deputies responded to a call about a missing person with dementia and vision problems. Lt. Brandon Reeves directed personnel for an initial search of the Old Louisville Road vicinity and then used his all-wheel drive vehicle to participate in the search by taking the dirt portion of Old Louisville Road. Lt. Reeves found the man up to his waist in water and mud, extremely wet and cold and in need of medical attention, about 4 miles from his home. Had it not been for Lt. Reeves' actions, this situation could have resulted in a tragic ending.

In her first 18 months, Luna underwent 2 heart surgeries and more than a dozen blood transfusions.

“I would never know who those individuals were...but to me, they are heroes.”

Luna's mom, in gratitude to blood donors

Every 2 seconds, someone in the U.S. needs blood.

The American Red Cross connects donors and patients, shepherding each blood unit on its careful journey.

As the nation's single largest blood supplier, we do all of this on an unparalleled scale.

The Red Cross

collected daily

We collect nearly 13,000 blood donations at about 520 drives daily.

10

Skilled technicians then conduct at least 10 tests, including for infectious diseases, to keep the nation's blood supply safe.

6.5 million

Finally, blood enters our supply chain for on-demand delivery to 6.5 million patients each year.

Delivering reliable, safe blood is complex and costly, but worth every penny when saving lives like Luna's.
