REACHING OUT IN THE COMMUNITY
Dear Red Cross Volunteers,
You are tremendous! Thank you so much for all your help after our humble house burnt to the ground. My husband and I were so shocked. We couldn’t do anything but cry, and you helped us and helped us find a place to stay. You gave us food, medicine, clothing and helped us with our furniture. God Bless You All.
— Fire victim

I want to thank the Maui chapter of the American Red Cross for helping my daughter and myself. I was unable to make our flight due to the fire near Lahaina. An airport employee directed us to the shelter in the Maui High School. We were given food, shelter and comfort. We realize that others at different shelters were worried about losing their homes and possessions. Our concerns were minimal in comparison; nevertheless, everyone received the same comfort and support. Thank you so much for helping us in this time of need. It was greatly appreciated.

Great work that you do for the community before during and after a disaster. God bless you all. Aloha.

Dear Madame or Sirs:
My name is … who asked for your help to inquire after my husband’s well-being. . . . He is a retired G.I. . . .”If you need to be placed on a suicide watch, . . .” If it were not for your prompt/effective help, I wonder if I could have reached my husband before he had hurt himself. You literally saved both my husband’s life and mine. Thank you very, very much. I would like to thank you for your prompt/effective help. Your concern with my husband’s condition . . .
— Fire victim

To the American Red Cross Volunteer:
“Getting the help we received from the American Red Cross has changed my whole perspective on the kinds of things they do, especially with what the American Red Cross did. I feel like I would want to devote my life, or some part of my life, either to volunteer or do something like this just to somehow give back to what the American Red Cross did.”
— House fire victim

Rescuer: “I started doing rescue breathing on him… and then he lost his pulse. . . .because of the Red Cross training, I was able to go through the steps in my head.”
Survivor: “Thank you for saving my life.”
