

Amber LaRue

Amber LaRue is the regional leader of middle market and nonprofit healthcare banking at Fifth Third Bank, covering Indiana, Southern Illinois, Missouri and Kansas. She has been at Fifth Third for more than 15 years but has 25 years of banking and finance experience. Amber is a graduate of DePauw University and the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. She also serves on the Executive Women in Finance board as Secretary. Amber lives with her husband, Jim, and their three children in Zionsville. In her spare time, she enjoys walking her two dogs and reading.