

Amber M. Williams

Amber M. Williams, M.A. is a higher education professional who currently serves at the Assistance Vice President for Employee Engagement for the statewide Ivy Tech Community College System. She teaches, trains, and facilitates with a focus on DEIB-related issues, psychology, and workplace behaviors. With over a decade of experience, Amber previously served as the statewide Executive Director for Employee Diversity, Equity and Belonging. She is also a full-time faculty member of Psychology, Program Chair for Social and Behavioral Sciences, and Phi Theta Kappa honor society faculty advisor for Ivy Tech Community College - Kokomo. Prior to Ivy Tech, Amber earned her Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Evangel University, and then her Master of Arts in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from Middle Tennessee State University. In her spare time, she can be seen around central Indiana where she lives with her husband and two children. Clifton Strengths: Communication, Activator, Strategic, Ideation, Maximizer