

Amy Little, DNP, RN, NE-BC

Amy Little, DNP, RN, NE-BC joined IU Health Bedford as the Chief Nursing Officer in 2019. Amy previously served as Director of Clinical Operations-Specialty Care Center/Cancer Services at Riley Hospital since February of 2017. Prior to that role, Amy worked at IU Health Bloomington Hospital beginning in 2008 serving as Manager of Clinical Operations for the NICU/Pediatrics/Lactation and Mother Baby Unit as well as Primary Charge Nurse. Amy also worked at hospitals in Tennessee and Las Vegas prior to joining IU Health.

Amy holds a Doctor of Nursing Practice from Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI), a Master of Science in Nursing Leadership in Health Systems from IUPUI and an Associate of Science in Nursing from Ivy Tech Community College. She is excited to join the Red Cross Southeast Chapter Board to expand the ways in which she can support, serve, and care for surrounding communities.

Amy was born and raised in Southern Indiana, graduating from Loogootee High School back when big hair was still a big deal. Amy and her husband, Jack Thomas, live in Bloomington and have three young adult children (Aidan Little, Emily Little, and Zoe Thomas). Amy enjoys time with her family, traveling, hiking, and the outdoors.
