

Brittany Griggs

Brittany is the Supervisor of Right of Way at CenterPoint Energy in Evansville, Indiana, covering the Indiana and Ohio Regions. She has been with the company since 2021. Her and her Team work closely with landowners, business owners and government entities to secure land rights and agreements on behalf of the company and build relationships with those groups to resolve any issues that may occur along the way. Brittany has a Bachelor's of Business Administration from Indiana University and a Bachelor's of Geography from Western Kentucky University.

Brittany joined the Southwest Indiana Red Cross Board in 2019 and serves on Leadership Council 1. She is also the Chair of the Mission/Outreach Committee. She has resided in Vanderburgh County most of her life and has personally seen on many occasions just how much the Red Cross does for its communities. She is honored to be part of an organization which provides so much assistance to individuals in all walks of life.
