

Brian Hylander

Brian Hylander is part of the Senior Leadership Team as Vice President & General Counsel for the AES Indiana electric utility (and its sister electric utility company in Ohio, AES Ohio), working to accelerate the future of energy together. Prior to working at AES, Brian was an attorney at the Taft law firm, where he handled corporate matters for a broad range of organizations.

Brian earned a law degree from the University of Michigan Law School and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Providence College and worked for a mutual fund company before obtaining his law degree. Brian also serves as Vice Chairman of the Boards of Trustees of ThinkTV and as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the AES Ohio Foundation, and will be an Adjunct Professor of Business Law at Anderson University, IN, in the Fall.
