

Carl Berger Bio

Carl Berger, a lifelong Ohioan, lives in Lima, Ohio. He moved to Lima in 1973 to work in sales for R. G. Dun Cigar Corporation, now SWD Corporation where he still serves as the CEO. He has been a Red Cross board member since the mid 80's, twice board chair in Lima for the former West Central Ohio Chapter. Red Cross led him to serve on the board of United Way of Lima (industry chair, campaign chair and board chair.) He currently serves on the development committee of St. Rita's Mercy Health. He is also a long time board member of the Lima Convalescent Home, a local independent nursing home and serves on the finance council of my parish church. Additionally, is a member of Lima Rotary and a past president. When Carl is not busy serving his community in these various leadership roles, he enjoys cigar smoking, motorcycling and shooting sporting clays.
