

Amber Collins-Gebrehiwet, Magistrate Marion Circuit Court

Amber Collins-Gebrehiwet was born and raised in Indianapolis, Indiana. She attended Pike High School and later earned her Bachelors of Science in Public Policy from Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois. Amber went on to attend law school at Indiana University Maurer School of Law. She practiced as a Deputy Prosecutor in Marion County for seven years before being appointed as a Magistrate in Marion County Circuit Court in January of 2019. Amber is passionate about volunteering with those less fortunate than her and serving as a mentor to the youth. Amber has been on the board of for the Red Cross of Central Indiana since 2017.

