

Dakota L. Duncan, MPH, CEM

Dakota Duncan is a nationally recognized leader in emergency management and public health operations with more than 15 years of experience across government, nonprofit and private sectors. He has directed large-scale disaster and humanitarian responses, including overseeing $5.7 billion in emergency operations and the deployment of more than 14,000 personnel.

Dakota previously served as Executive Director of Emergency Management for National EMR (formerly BCFS Health & Human Services) and Vice President of Operations for Krucial Rapid Response, the nation's largest emergency staffing firm. A Certified Emergency Manager, he holds a Master of Public Health and is a graduate of Oxford University's Executive Leadership Program. He has authored multiple works on emergency management and recently served as Plenary Speaker at the 2024 Alaska State Emergency Management Conference.