

David Billows Bio

David Billows lives in Rome City, Indiana, with his wife, Kendall. After retiring from a career in Industrial Products Sales in 2015, he long thought of how and where he could “give back” to the community during retirement. After attending a Red Cross fundraiser in Fort Wayne later that year, he decided to make the call and dedicate his time to serving others. Since that time, he became a Disaster Action Team (DAT) responder and supervisor, a member of the Home Fire Campaign (HFC) and Community Engagement and Partnerships (CEP) team, the Government Liaison for Noble County, and a Community Volunteer Leader.