

Gary Dillman, Vice President and Senior Wealth Strategist, PNC Wealth Management

As a Vice President and a Senior Wealth Strategist in the Northern Indiana market, Gary Dillman leads the deep and dynamic discovery process to achieve a mutual understanding of your family, business (if applicable) and financial goals. He works with you and your advisors to help develop a strategic financial plan utilizing an ongoing process that enables you and your team to understand what's truly important to you in achieving peace of mind. Gary identifies and prioritizes your objectives and with your team develops tailored solutions to help achieve them. Gary has the knowledge, experience and desire to help bring about successful outcomes as your trusted advisor.

Gary has worked in the financial services industry over 29 years. Prior to joining PNC, he provided financial and wealth advisory services for J.P. Morgan, SYM Financial Mgmt., and Galecki Financial Mgmt. where he was the director of financial planning. Gary served as a sr. relationship manager in the PNC Wealth Management office for Northern Indiana prior to stepping into his current role.

Gary earned his Bachelor of Science in business administration from the Indiana Institute of Technology in Fort Wayne with concentrations in finance and economics.

Gary is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ practitioner, and a Certified Exit Planning Advisor. As a CEPA®, Gary engages with business owners to develop a strategic exit plan that maximizes business value, identifies needs and opportunities, and meets your personal and business goals.

Gary serves on the board for the American Red Cross of Northeast Indiana and has served as a chapter chairman as well. He is a retired officer of the United States Army Reserve and is also a member of PNC Bank's Military Employee Business Resource Group. Gary also serves as the current president of the Fort Wayne Estate Planning Council.
