

Kim Herbertz, Executive Director, RSVP Volunteer Center

Kim Herbertz is the Executive Director of the RSVP Volunteer Center, a non-profit agency serving Daviess and Martin Counties. The Volunteer Center has 375 members who meet the needs of other non-profits, city and county governments, schools and health care providers. Annually, these members contribute over 100,000 hours of service benefitting both the community and the volunteer.

Kim has been active with the American Red Cross as a DAT responder since 2010 and a member of the Board of Directors since 2017.

