

Mr. Juan Manuel Guzman has proudly served the Indiana Red Cross Board since 2018. A strong advocate for the greater Indianapolis Community, Mr. Guzman is also active in leadership roles at the Columbia Club and is an active member of the Indianapolis Chamber and Indiana Workers Compensation Institute.

A native of Mexico City, Mexico, Mr. Guzman immigrated to the United States and eventually was recruited to Indianapolis by Roman Catholic Archbishop Daniel Buechlein to serve as a pastoral associate with the Archdiocese. Mr. Guzman earned his diploma at the University seminary. Mr. Guzman furthered his graduate education, with a particular focus on philosophy and theology. He performed post-graduate studies in theology after entering the US at Mt. Angel Seminary in Oregon. Mr. Guzman is also a 2009 graduate of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Citizens Academy in Indianapolis, where he remains active in their alumni program and the local FBI office.

Mr. Guzman became a naturalized US Citizen in 2009. Mr. Guzman is the founder and owner of Logos Translation & Interpretation Services, LLC. Logos is an Indianapolis-based professional translation & interpretation service that provides services in 15+ languages. virtually and in person. They service medical and legal clients throughout the US and Mexico.

Mr. Guzman and his husband have homes here in Indianapolis and Mexico. They are active Roman Catholics and enjoy engaging in ecumenical dialogue assisting in social service-related concerns in our community, especially child welfare and refugee assistance. When not working, Mr. Guzman and his spouse enjoy traveling the United States in their motorcoach.