

Kyle Utter

Kyle Utter is a highly accomplished people leader with 12 years of experience at Western Governors University (WGU), where he currently serves as Director of the Central Region. He specializes in strategic leadership and partnership development, driving organizational growth through innovative strategies, cross-functional collaboration and strong stakeholder engagement. Kyle holds an MBA from WGU and a Bachelor of Science in Architecture from Ball State University.

Throughout his tenure at WGU, he has held key roles in Enrollment, Strategic Relations, National Partnership Development, Strategic Partnerships, and Regional Leadership, bringing impact and value to communities across the region.

Outside of work, Kyle has volunteered with the Indiana Region of the American Red Cross since 2017, previously serving on the Young Professionals Board and as a Community Volunteer Leader. He enjoys spending quality time with his wife and their two young children.