

Logan Baumann

Logan is a graduate of the University of Louisville with a bachelor's degree in economics. Additionally, he completed a Master of Business Administration at the Gordon Ford School of Business through Western Kentucky University. Logan also completed a Master's Certificate in Certified Financial Planning through Butler University in 2020. Before entering the financial services practicum, Logan was a Collegiate Division I basketball coach since 2015, holding positions at the University of Louisville, University of Evansville, and most recently, California State Northridge. He enjoys taking walks with his wife Paige, son Dax, & dog Acie, playing golf, and following all things sports related. Logan, Paige & their newborn son Dax reside in Evansville, IN.