

Lori Jones

Lori is the Vice President of Procurement at AmeriQual Foods, where she leads procurement strategy across three manufacturing facilities. With more than 20 years of experience in supply chain and procurement leadership, she has built a career focused on strategic sourcing, supplier partnerships, cost optimization, and operational excellence. Lori has been with AmeriQual since 2011 and is passionate about developing collaborative relationships that drive results.

A lifelong resident of the Evansville area, Lori is committed to giving back to her community through leadership and service. She believes strong communities are built through collaboration, compassion, and volunteerism, and she is honored to support the mission of the American Red Cross. Through her board service, Lori is committed to helping advance the organization's humanitarian efforts and strengthen its impact throughout the region.

Outside of work, Lori enjoys spending time with her husband and two children, supporting their academic and athletic pursuits, and traveling with her family. She and her family are proud members of the Mater Dei High School and University of Notre Dame communities.
