

Max Raine, Senior Account Manager, UPS

Max Raine has eight years of experience working in transportation and logistics. As a Senior Account Manager for UPS, he manages the customer experience of key accounts across all sales and solutions. He leverages UPS resources, strategic partnerships and wholly-owned subsidiaries to identify ways his clients can better manage their operating costs and grow market share.

Max joined UPS in 2012 in operations in Sharonville, Ohio. He was promoted in 2015 to an Account Executive and moved to Whitestown, Indiana. Shortly thereafter, he was promoted once more to his current position in Fort Wayne.

During his time at UPS, Max volunteered for several non-profits, including Habitat for Humanity, United Way and the American Red Cross. Amid the 2020 COVID 19 pandemic, he joined the advisory board for the Northeast Indiana Chapter of the American Red Cross, where he serves on the Board Development and Philanthropy committees.

Max is currently pursuing his MBA in Management at Purdue University.

