

Melissa Baker

Melissa Baker is the Director of Marketing and Fundraising for Reach For Youth, a nonprofit organization dedicated to youth mental health. With two decades of experience at organizations like the American Cancer Society and Scouting America, Melissa has a deep passion for nonprofit work and community impact. Melissa lives in Franklin, Indiana, where she is restoring a charming Victorian fixer upper. Committed to making a difference, she is excited to serve on the American Red Cross Board to further her mission of helping others.