

Nabila (na.bee.la) Sattar Safdar is a Senior Scrum Master at Do it Best Corp., Professor at Purdue University Fort Wayne teaching Project Management, Information Systems Technology Strategy, Management & Acquisition, and advises senior design projects. She is also the Founder & President of Nabilities, an agility & change leadership consulting firm focused on adding value through training, mentoring and coaching.

Nabila has worked in biotech, retail, non-profit, co-op, technology and academia spanning over 17 years and is driven by the passion for continuous improvement. She loves to find new ways to strengthen team resilience. She joined the Red Cross board to learn more about the organization by engaging in initiatives and connecting individuals to the organization.

Hobbies include travel, reading, recipe testing, and fashion design.