

Rev. David W. Greene Sr., M.Div.

Rev. David W. Greene, Sr. is a dedicated husband, father, son, pastor and friend on a personal level; as well as a strong determined humanitarian, civic leader, educator, an advocate of youth, and a drum major for social justice. Pastor Greene has celebrated over 35 years of marriage with his lovely wife, Glenda P. Greene and is the proud father of two children, Ashley Nichole and David Jr., three grandsons, Carrington Gandy, Ashton Snow, and Triston Hogue; and four granddaughters, Nyla Janae Greene, Trinity Hogue, Sydney Greene, Savannah Greene. Pastor Greene's proud parents reside in Cave City, KY.

Pastor Greene has been the dynamic Senior Pastor of Purpose of Life Ministries here in Indianapolis for over 25 years; resulting in a congregational growth from approximately 350 to almost 1000. Pastor Greene ministers to the unchurched, unloved and unsaved continuously.

Pastor Greene is an active board member of the following organizations:

- President of Concerned Clergy Of Indianapolis Inc. (2015 – Present)
- Second Vice-President of Blueprint Council to End Homelessness (2019 – Present)
- Chairman of Central Indiana Council Of Aging (CICOA) (2017 – 2020)
- Chairman of American Red Cross of Central Indiana Board (2014 – 2016)

Pastor Greene is active in many efforts within the city to address community issues.