

Tonda Welch

Tonda Welch is the Indiana Region Lab Director for Deaconess Health System. She resides in Pike County and works in labs located at Deaconess Gibson and Deaconess Memorial Medical Center.

Tonda earned a Bachelor of Science from Purdue University in 1996, ASCP certified. She has 29 years of laboratory experience, with 25 years at Deaconess Gibson Laboratory. Tonda joined the leadership team in 2005 as a Laboratory Manager and was promoted to Director in 2008.

Tonda is a member of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority, which raises money for local charities, scholarships and families in need. She is also a board member of the Prides Creek Golf Course.