
Robert Wypyski – Vice President Director of Sales

Robert began his UPS career in 1992 as a Package Driver in the Central New York District. In 1993, he entered into a management position and joined the Business Development team.

In 1996, he was laterally rotated into the Metro New York District where he held various positions in Sales and Marketing until 2001 when he accepted a promotion as a Sales Manager. In 2006, he accepted an assignment as the East Region Sales Operations Manager.

In 2011, Robert was promoted and relocated to the South California District as a Director of Sales. He held this position until being named the Ohio Valley District Managing Director of Sales in September 2016.

Robert was promoted to Vice President of Sales in 2020 with responsibilities for the Midwest and Mid Atlantic portions of the United States.

Robert serves on the board of the American Red Cross of Indiana where he is the Chair of the Mission Committee.

Robert has a Bachelor's degree in Marketing from Fordham University and a Master's Degree from Dowling College.

Robert and his wife Patricia have two children, Tatiana and Roman. They reside in Carmel Indiana.