

Amber Skoby

Amber Skoby has extensive experience working in the affordable housing field most recently as the Housing Preservation Services Consulting Team Leader at Dominion Due Diligence Group. Skoby supports housing agencies to improve, protect, and preserve their affordable housing communities. Prior to this role, Skoby served in leadership positions at the Bloomington Housing Authority, including as the Executive Director from 2017 to 2021.

For one year after college graduation, Skoby served on an AmeriCorps Emergency Response Team helping to establish and operate volunteer reception centers following natural disasters in Texas, Missouri and Arkansas.

Skoby earned a BA in Landscape Architecture from the College of Architecture and Planning at Ball State University and a Master of Public Affairs degree from the O'Neill School of Public and Environmental Affairs at Indiana University-Bloomington.

She has served on various boards and committees including the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials, South Central Housing Network, and the United Way Emergency Food and Shelter Program. In 2021, Skoby was an honoree for the Bloomington, IN Chamber of Commerce Women Excel Award.

Skoby lives with her husband in Muncie.
