A Message from our Chief Executive Officer Kevin Coffey

Thank you for joining us at our American Red Cross 140th Anniversary. Clara Barton, our founder, risked her life to bring supplies and support to soldiers on the battlefield during the Civil War. Today we carry her mission forward.

This past year has been like no other and our commitment to alleviate human suffering in the face of Covid-19 has not wavered. Emergencies don't stop and neither do we. Our mission is Uplifting. Unwavering. Unstoppable.

The American Red Cross is there providing help and hope when it's needed most. J.R. Martinez, our keynote speaker, will speak to you tonight about purpose. I believe we are all gathered here tonight with one collective purpose to support the lifesaving mission of the Red Cross.

Our mission moments tonight highlight the impact of our work. As a community, we face challenging times ahead but your support:

- Ensures that we can maintain a sufficient supply of blood to help patients in need and prevent any shortages like Rebecca and her mom.
- Ensures that we can continue to provide critical relief services to people affected by disasters big and small like Michael and Lacy.
- Ensures that the men and women serving in our military and their families continue to have support and critical community services during this challenging time like Kelley.

We simply cannot do this critical work without your support. We are so grateful to our generous sponsors, our honorary committee, our blood donors and our amazing volunteers who have given so generously to support the Red Cross. They have all invested in the legacy and future of the Red Cross. We hope you will too and help us reach our goal.

On behalf of the entire American Red Cross Eastern New York Region, thank you. Hearts Open, Sleeves Up, All In.
